A summary of the prevailing consensus surrounding each of our specific charges, as well as final recommendations, are included below for the consideration of SenEx and the Governance Office.

Specific Charge 1a

“1. Consider, then if appropriate,
   a. propose the inclusion of the AAUP 1966 Statement on Government of Colleges and Universities in a preamble to the USRRs and FSRR 1.1.1 (or other appropriate location(s)) to SenEx.”

We do not recommend that the AAUP 1966 Statement on Government of Colleges and Universities be included within USRR and FSRR. The Committee understands and appreciates the delicate balance between University Governance and the Administration, particularly with respect to the top-down approach taken with the KU Common Core. However, the inclusion of this document will not alleviate these concerns due to a lack of specificity with respect to KU, dated language, and poorly defined roles concerning students and staff. The Committee was also concerned about setting a precedent for incorporating external policies within internal KU documents. SenEx, if it so chooses, may instruct the Committee to re-write the Preamble to USRR and FSRR on our own; however, we do not feel that this would be an effective use of our time since conflicts of this nature rarely arise more than once every couple decades.

Specific Charge 1b

“1. Consider, then if appropriate,
   b. propose the inclusion of the 1990 Statement on Conflicts of Interest in a preamble to the USRR Article V (or other appropriate location(s)) to SenEx.”

We do not recommend that the 1990 (2013 Revised) Statement on Conflicts of Interest be included within USRR. The current University forms are sufficient, and the inclusion of this statement is redundant. However, if SenEx remains concerned about this issue, then it may be worthwhile to review the existing KU documents and to recommend a more comprehensive list of potential conflicts.

Specific Charge 2

“2. Create a policy regarding the role of Advisory Boards, as well as conflict of interest. Check if there are already existing policies that could be linked to the Governance website, for example policies in various schools and information from professional accrediting bodies.”

The KU Policy Library contains guidelines for using Advisory Boards for fundraising purposes at the following link:

http://policy.ku.edu/provost/institutional-advancement-practices-and-guidelines#Appointment
However, this policy does not cover boards used for consultation purposes in the areas of curriculum, recruitment, research, and program development. For these Advisory Boards, we recommend that each Department establish their own guidelines. For example, the Department of Geology has developed by-laws and procedures for the Geology Associates Advisory Board that would serve as an excellent example for any other department that wishes to more clearly define the role of its Advisory Board. These by-laws are included within Appendix A at the end of this report. We leave it at the discretion of the Governance Office and SenEx as to whether any or all of the above links and documents be provided on the Governance Office website.

The Committee did not conduct a comprehensive survey of all schools and accrediting bodies. If SenEx would like this additional policy information concerning Advisory Boards, then we recommend that this charge be retained for FY2017.

Specific Charge 3

“3. Consider creating gender neutral language (but no substantive changes) for the University Senate Code, USRR, and FSRR. Report to SenEx by the End of the academic year.
(Charge added by SenEx February 23, 2016).”

The Committee reviewed the submitted documents for USRR and USC. The proposed changes to USC were minor and did not require additional changes. However, some of the changes to USRR were more substantial, and the Committee carefully reviewed these changes to ensure that the underlying meaning of each section was not changed. Our amendments to the amendments were then passed on to the Governance Office and SenEx for further consideration.

No documents for FSRR were submitted for our consideration. We recommend that the Governance Office and/or SenEx contact Harrison Baker and request that he conduct a first pass through FSRR and suggest appropriate changes. We can then review his suggestions as we did for USRR and USC this year. Alternatively, SenEx may charge us with this task, as well; however, in this case, we request that a member of O&A be appointed for FY2017 specifically for their expertise in gender neutral language.
